The Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this lass of diseases, in all their forms, and to give Medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter with a description of their condition, (age occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty, to furnish Medicines free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause. THE PIPES AT LUCKNOW.

Pipes of the mis'y moorland, Voice of the glen and hill, The drone of highland torrent, The song of lowland rill; Not the braes of broom and heather, Nor the mountains, dark with rain,

Nor maiden bower, nor border tower,

Have heard your sweetest strain! Dear to the lowland reaper And plaided mountaineer. To the cottage and the castle, The Scottish pipes are dear. Sweet sounds the ancient pibroch O'er mountain, loch, and glade; But the sweetest of all music

The Pipes at Lucknow played! Day by day, the Indian tiger Louder yelled, and nearer crept; Round and round the jungle serpent Near and nearer circ les swept. Pray for rescue, wives and mothers-Pray to-day!" the soldiers said, To morrow, death's between us, And the wrong and shame we dread.

Oh! they listened, looked, and waited, Till their hope became despair, And the sobs of low bewailing, Filled the pauses of their prayer. Then up spoke a Scottish maiden, With her ear upon the ground; "Dinna ye hear it!-dinna ye hear it! The pipes o' Havelock sound!"

Hushed the wounded man his groaning; Hushed the wife her little ones; Alone they heard the drum roll. And the roar of Sepoy guns. But to sounds of home and childhood The Highland ear was true; "Dinna ye hear it!- 'tis the slogan! Will ye no believe it noo?"

Like the march of soundless music Through the vision of the seer, More of feeling than of hearing, Of the heart than of the ear, She knew the droning pibroch, She knew the Campbell's cail; "Hark! hear ye no MacGregor's-

The grandest o' them all.'

Oh! they listened, dumb and breathless, And they caught the sound at last; Faint and iar beyond the Goomtee Rose and fell the piper's blast! Then a burst of wild thanksgiving Mingled woman's voice and man's; God be praised!-the march of Havelock! The piping of the clans!"

Came the wild MacGregor's clan-call, Singing all the air to life. But when the far-off dust cloud To plaided legions grew, Full tenderly and blithesomely The pipes of rescue blew! Round the silver domes of Lucknow,

Louder, nearer, fierce as vengeance,

Sharp and shrill as swords at strife,

Round red Dowlan's golden shrine, Breathed the air to Britons dearest, The air of Auld Lang Syne, O'er the cruel roll of war-drums Rose that sweet and home-like strain, And the tartan clove the turban,

As the Goomtree cleaves the plain.

Dear to the cornland reaper And plaided mountaineer, To the cottage and the castle, The piper's song is dear. Sweet sounds the Gaelic pibroch O'er mountain, glen, and glade,

But the sweetest of all music The Pipes at Lucknow played!
